

I am uneasy about living in a country in which so many media outlets are owned by a few large conglomerates. I fear this will lead to a mal-informed American public and a failure of democracy. Please keep the current ownership rules in place on June 2!